Richard A. Colon, a teacher in the Jefferson Union High School District, has been named San Mateo County's Teacher of the Year for 1978. Colon has taught Spanish at Pacifica's Oceana High School for 15 years. He also serves as chairman of the school's foreign language department, sponsor of the Spanish Club and active in educational and civic organizations. The Teacher of the Year contest, open to teachers in grades kindergarten through 12, is sponsored by the California State Department of Education, the Council of Chief State School Officers, Encyclopedia Britannica and the Ladies Home Journal. Colon now will compete in the state contest.

Rehab Committee Grants Housing Loans

By NANCY STANCILL

In one fell swoop, Daly City's newly appointed Rehabilitation Loan Committee has spent nearly all of the city's federal Housing and Community Development Act rehabilitation funding.

The three-person committee, which met a few days ago, approved 13 applications totaling about $200,000 in commitments to Daly City residents low-cost housing rehabilitation loans.

Eight of the loans will use up about $130,000 of the city's $162,000 in HCDA funds for rehabilitation, according to Community Development Director Don Fleming.

Fleming reported to Daly City's City Council at its study session Monday night.

Another four loan applications will be processed through the Department of Housing and Urban Development's 312 loan program at a cost of $70,000. The remaining loan will be a combination of the two funding programs.

The new committee, convening in its first meeting, denied one loan application, because the applicant did not meet income requirements, according to Fleming.

Fleming said the remaining $32,000 in HCDA rehabilitation funds be held by the city for loan-related expenses.

However, he said the loan program will not stop with the dwindling of the first-and second-year HCDA funding.

Fleming said the largest HCDA-funded project — the city's proposed multi-purpose center — is scheduled for council approval Nov. 7.

If condemnation proceedings involving the proposed multi-purpose center site are approved at that time, Fleming said he expects the city to petition for the release of third-year HCDA rehabilitation funds, another $162,000.

In addition to third-year funding, he said, the HCDA task force plans to go to its advisory committee with a request to reallocate other city HCDA funds to the rehabilitation project.

Fleming noted that $75,000 originally was allocated to interim relocation of the city's Community Services Center while the multi-purpose center is being constructed.

However, the city since has decided to renovate only the Community Services Center's Mission Street quarters during the interim period, a move which may free more than $50,000 for rehabilitation use.

Fleming said there may be other possibilities for use of extra first-and second-year HCDA funds to keep the rehabilitation "momentum" going.

"We're moving rather rapidly at this point," he said.

Daly City has been prodded by the federal government to implement its HCDA programs faster or take the chance of losing future funding.

The city also has been pressured to move with more speed on rehabilitation by residents of the Old Daly City target area around Mission Street.

Salary Hikes for Teachers

JH 'Not Convinced'

Teachers in the Jefferson Union High School District "are not convinced that there is no money for salary increases," Marcy Ballard, president of Local 1481, American Federation of Teachers, has told JUHSD Superintendent Dr. Floyd Gonella.

Mrs. Ballard has sent a letter to Gonella in connection with th district's recent response to an AFT proposal for 10 per cent salary increases for the coming year.

The district's Board of Trustees has proposed, in turn, that salaris remain at current levels, excluding step increases. The board has pointed to worsening financial conditions in the district.

However, Mrs. Ballard said the AFT Executive Board "authorized me to continue our joint efforts with school management to obtain additional monies.

"The district has not cut administrative spending at all," Mrs. Ballard contended in her letter to Gonella. "Two administrators recently attended a conference in San Diego. Your salary as superintendent was increased 12 per cent."

Mrs. Ballard added, "The great disparity between the wages of teachers and the wages of those in management remains."

The AFT president mentioned "massive redecorating" as evidence that "teachers see the district operating 'business as usual.'

"The Executive Board has instructed me to relay to you that if in fact there is no money for teachers' salaries, then teachers expect to see a real austerity program," Mrs. Ballard said.

WHO'S BIGGER?

Three-year-old Jennifer Staszesky doesn't quite tower over "Bernie," but she is slightly larger. Jennifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staszesky, is one of many children who will participate in the Broadmoor parade and carnival this Saturday. The carnival, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., will be at the Broadmoor Community Center. The parade will begin at 2 p.m. from Larchmont Street, and proceed down 87th Avenue. Sheriff's department officers will serve as grand marshals.

Hospital Parking Solution

Daly City residents who have complained of a Mary's Help Hospital parking spillover in the adjacent neighborhood have agreed to see if a hospital solution will ease the problem.

The problem began several months ago when Mary's Help began charging its employees 25 cents per day to park in newly constructed lots at the hospital.

The employees, to avoid the new fee, began crowding the streets adjacent to the hospital. Residents objected to the inconvenience and requested that the City Council take action.

Councilmen Victor Kyriakis and McRobert Stewart have met with residents and hospital officials about the problem.

They reported to the council Monday that the hospital will reduce its parking fee 40 per cent.

Employees may purchase a monthly parking card for $3.30, and would not pay extra when they leave and return to the lot.

"The residents seem to be pleased," said Kyriakis, who met with about 20 persons last Thursday.

The councilman noted that it will take from six to eight weeks to implement the reduced price parking card program. The program will be evaluated after that time.

Daly City Wants Industrial Park in Influence Sphere

City Manager David Rowe of Daly City is to appear before the San Mateo County Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO) Wednesday to urge that a proposed Brisbane sphere of influence analysis include east Daly City.

Rowe will press for the commercial jewel, the Crocker Industrial Park area, to be "considered for inclusion within the Daly City sphere of influence."

At a Daly City City Council study session Monday, the council offered no objection to Rowe's plan to speak on the city's interest in the LAFCO matter.

LAFCO Executive Officer B. Sherman Coffman is to recommend at the 1:30 p.m. meeting Wednesday that the commission "initiate a sphere of influence study for the city of Brisbane and the Guadalupe Valley Municipal Improvement District in an effort to complete the sphere of influence program for the North County local agencies."

The Guadalupe District is a landowner district which contracts for police and fire services for the unincorporated Crocker Industrial Park.

The district presently is contracting for service with Daly City, a fact that doubtless will be pointed out by Rowe in a drive for future control of the commercial-rich area.

However, Brisbane has initiated a push for the Crocker Park area, as well as other portions of San Bruno Mountain, including the Brisbane vicinity and the northeast ridge.

Brisbane City Manager Brad Kerwin and several City Council members appeared before LAFCO last month to request that Brisbane be assigned a sphere of influence in line with a 1973 LAFCO action.

In 1973, the commission named San Mateo County as "the most appropriate governmental agency to do the comprehensive plan for San Bruno Mountain."

At that time, the commission held off assigning mountain spheres of influence, but declared its intent to assign "the majority of the Saddle Area, the northeast ridge and the Crocker Industrial Park to the city of Brisbane" when the comprehensive plan was completed.

Kerwin pointed out that the city since 1973 has hired a planning staff and a full-time city manager with the sphere of influence matter in mind.

He urged that LAFCO go

OUCH!

Caroline Festejo doesn't like the immunization shot she's receiving from Paulina Baldwin, but the shot itself is necessary for all children in California schools. A new state law provides that any youngster who doesn't have proof of immunization may be excluded from school. The immunizations against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, polio and measles were given at the War Memorial Community Center, Daly City, on Monday. Another immunization session will be today from 2 to 4 p.m. at the District Health Office, 1024 Mission Road, South San Francisco.

City's Transfer Station

Revised Roadway Plan Ok'd

A revised plan that utilizes separate roadways to Daly City's planned transfer station and its proposed nearby Coastside park was approved Monday by the Central Coast Zone Regional Commission.

The commisson, meeting in Santa Cruz, voted 9-2 to accept the revision offered by City Manager David Rowe of Daly City. The approval was necessary as a condition to the commission's earlier approval of the construction of the transfer station.

Rowe, accompanied by Mayor Albert Teglia and Daly City Scavenger Co. official Al Sereni, offered th commission 12 alternatives for siting and access to the two separate facilities.

The alternative the commission chose will locate the transfer station farther east on the Coastside site than originally was planned, Rowe said.

The original plan offered by the city proposed that thepark and the station share the same access, but the commisson objected that it might detract from the proposed park development.

Instead, garbage trucks will be prohibited from using the park roadway connection, though long-distance trucks may use the separate loop area for exiting, according to Rowe.

Use of the park stretch of roadway for transfer truck exits will involve nine trips a day, he said.

Deliberation on the plan by the Coastal Commission lasted about an hour.

The city manager said the transfer station, set in a small valley on the site, will be hidden "almost entirely" from the Coastside park by a landscaped berm. Only the tip of the roof might be visible, he said.

Th city is under state orders to stop dumping at the Mussel Rock landfill site by Feb. 28, 1978, but transfer station construction there has not been started yet.

The Central Coast Zone Regional Commission's ruling is expected to be the primary topic at a meeting of the Daly City-Pacifica Joint Garbage Committee Wednesday.

The committee, Teglia and Councilman Tony Giammona from Daly City and Councilmen Nick Gust and Mark Savage from Pacifica, will meet at 5 p.m. at the administrative conference room in Daly City's City Hall.

Rowe to work full-time on HCDA projects, has lost a worker with the resignation of assistant city planner Betty Clack. Mrs. Clack will leave Oct. 25 to become development coordinator for Kennewick, Wash.

Fleming said it will be necessary to use more HCDA funds because direct-loan HUD 312 program requirements do not take care of the needier cases.

Applications processed by the loan committee range from a $30,000 maximum loan for complete renovation and refinancing to a $2,500 loan to help the owner correct minor housing code violations.

Loan applications are kept confidential within the committee workings, he stressed.

Fleming said the city is seeking more contractors to bid on rehabilitation projects. He said the city already has about 20 contractors.

Construction on the first HCDA loan projects should begin Nov. 1, according to Fleming.

The HUD 312-financed loans will be a "more lengthy process," since they will now be scrutinized by HUD. The first of the HUD 312 loan construction should begin by December, he said.

The city's rehabilitation consultant, Connerly and Associates, has talked with 35 of the 43 applicants to date, he said.

The Connerly firm is expected to open an office on Mission Street this week, Fleming said.

Sphere —

read and assign the sphere of influence, but Coffman has recommended that a sphere of influence study be undertaken first.

"Such a study would include the generation of detailed service needs, capacities and demographic information," Coffman said.

Coffman, in a memo directed to the commission, noted that laws and commission policies, as well as prospects for San Bruno Mountain, have changed during the four-year period since the initial commitment to Brisbane.

The executive officers said he would not recommend that any local agency be assigned a sphere of influence over the Saddle Area, the portion of the mountain committed for state park development by the state Parks Commission.

"A sphere of influence study, if initiated by the Formation Commission for Brisbane and Guadalupe Valley Municipal Improvement District, should only include lands subject to urban development and therfore in the future require urban services," he said.

Coffman discounted an earlier suggestion by Ron Grudzinski of Visitacion Associates that a sphere of influence study would further complicate the ongoing litigation regarding the Saddle issue."

Grudzinski last month urged LAFCO not to proceed with sphere of influence analysis while his company is in court on a lawsuit over development of Saddle Area property it owns.

Coffman concluded that Brisbane-Guadalupe District study would take "at least four to six months for staff to complete."

Marina Report Before Council

Several controversial and significant items are scheduled to be considered by the South San Francisco City Council at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The council will be considering the final report of the Oyster Point Marina Park Advisory Board, which is composed of three councilmen and two county harbor commissioners.

City Manager Walter Birkelo is expected to recommend the council adopt a joint powers agreement with the San Mateo County Harbor District for operation of the marina and supervision of the proposed $8.4 million expansion project.

The proposed agreement — hammered out by the board in five meetings — places most of the responsibility for operation of the marina on the Harbor District.

Also scheduled is consideration of a proposed schedule for meeting the regional Water Quality Control Board's demands for water quality Control Board's demands for water quality control measures at the existing marina.

THANKS FOR EFFORT

Daly City Police Officer Edmund J. Cota was commended recently by Richard C. Sims, left, the city's assistant chief of police, for Cota's efforts in responding to a jewelry store burglary Sept. 22. Cota was able to cover possible escape routes while other officers arrived and apprehended both the suspect and the intended stolen property.

Update on Closing Schools Urged Now

The continued decline in San Bruno Park School District enrollment has led Trustee Eugene May to ask that the one-year-old ad hoc committee report on closing schools be reopened and updated.

May said Monday night he is concerned because enrollment in the nine-school district is even less than a year ago.

The trustee asked that the update be completed by Nov. 21.

"The board needs to make some decisions in this area — and soon," May said.

His comments came after Administrative Assistant Robert Barron had presented a detailed analysis of district enrollment for this year.

Enrollment is down some 288 students — from 3,201 last fall to 2,913, as of Sept. 30.

The total enrollment is actually four more students than Barron had projected for this year. However, he noted that it's the second largest total loss the district has experienced. The greatest loss — 323 students — was in 1972-783, when declining enrollment was just beginning to take its toll in school districts throughout the country.

Barron pointed out that the greatest losses continue to be in the kindergarten classes, indicating the decline will continue.

The most significant total enrollment drops were at Allen School, from 390 last fall to 333 this year; Carl Sandburg, which dropped from 214 last fall to 156 this year; and Engvall, where 591 students were enrolled last fall, but only 506 this year.

Last October, the ad hoc committee comprised of representatives from the PTA, City Council, certificated and classified employee staffs, the Chamber of Commerce and a local taxpayers association — reported to the board.

It recommended against closing any school through 1978-79.

It suggested the district attempt to rent empty classrooms throughout the district, not only erasing the need to close a school, but bringing revenue into the district as well.

The committee also suggested forming a new committee if declining enrollment continues.

Barron said there may be methods to determine more accurately the number of kindergarten students that will be enrolled next fall.

One way he explained, might be to canvass every neighborhood.

"Some of our areas are such transciency areas — with such a turnover — that it (enrollment) is distorted," Barron said.

PRISM Terminated Oct. 31

PRISM, the countywide computer system which never got off the ground, despite $250,000 to try, officially terminates Oct. 31.

Economic and "political realities" were major forces which contributed to halting the project, according to Michael J. Barrett, chairman of the Criminal Justice Council of San Mateo County.

Attempts to revive PRISM on a smaller basis are already developing. PRISM is an acronym for Participatory Records and Information for San Mateo County.

The initial concept was to have a computer which stored and shared information for county police and criminal justice segments, such as courts and probation.

In a letter addressed to the council by the County City Managers' Association, Gerald D. Minford, the group's chairman, said:

"Although PRISM is apparently being dropped, the necessity to deal with some of the problems which generated the attempt to create a better information-sharing system still exists.

"During the process of developing a system under the PRISM project, a great deal of information and data were compiled which can be useful. The idea of an information-sharing system should not be dropped. Either a different approach to the entire problem or addressing ourselves to portions of the problem still seems appropriate.

"We, as an association, would like to encourage the re-evaluation of the whole problem with an effort to identify what should be done under existing circumstances. In this manner all of the talent and money that was spent on the PRISM project will not be totally lost. An evaluation of where we go from here seems in order."

The County Police Chiefs Association, which opposed abandoning PRISM, is also eager to find a way to implement the law enforcement segment of PRISM.

Information storage and sharing among police agencies in San Mateo County is archaic, chiefs contend.

It thus appears that even before the final rites for PRISM, at least a partial resurrection may be coming.

Sheriff To Run Again

Stressing he will continue to emphasize training, crime prevention and community involvement in law enforcement, San Mateo County Sheriff John R. McDonald announced that he will seek re-election in June 1978.

The sheriff made the announcement at a breakfast meeting attended by members of the Committee To Retain Sheriff McDonald.

McDonald's re-election bid comes just two weeks after a stormy meeting of the Board of Supervisors, when Henry Anthony of East Palo Alto characterized the Sheriff's Office as racist.

The sheriff reacted angrily to the charge both before the board and again recently.

He charged that Anthony's remarks were politically motivated. Anthony is an East Palo Alto Municipal Council member who has been rumored as a candidate for the Board of Supervisors.

"We have, I think," said McDonald, "the best affirmative action policy in the country. Nobody except Mr. Anthony has insinuated that this matter is of a concern to him."

FINE ARTS

Chamber Players in Concert

The San Francisco Conservatory of Music Chamber Music Players, under the direction of Joan Gallegos, will give a concert Nov. 14 at 8 p.m. at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 2222 Broadway (between Webster and Fillmore), San Francisco.

Included in this program will be the Quintet for Piano and Winds in E-Flat Major by Mozart, and the Horn Trio by Brahms.

For details, call 564-8086.

Art Classes, Exhibits

Two free, six-week art courses will open this weekend at Canada College, Redwood City. Registrations will be taken in the classroom — room 254 of the Main Theater Building at the first meeting.

Degas and the Impressionists will be the topic of a Friday evening class to be led by Dr. Adela Roatcap, beginning Oct. 21. The 7-10 p.m. class will provide a thorough examination of the breakthrough in art during the late 19th century.

"Art as Propaganda," meeting Saturdays from 9 a.m.-noon beginning Oct. 22, will give particular attention to 20th century art used as poster material, as theme, and as symbol. Instructor is Denise Erickson.

Paintings now on exhibit in the foyer of the Main Theater at Canada College are landscapes and figures by Barbara Capell Lawrence.

A hand-crafted mandolin and a large oval stained glass window by Canada College art student Richard Morton are on display in the foyer's sculpture cabinet. His work will be exhibited through Nov. 23.

Comedy to Open

"The Miser," a Restoration comedy in the farce style by Moliere, will be presented by Canada College drama students in the Main Theater at the Redwood City college on Oct. 20, 21, 22, 28, and 29.

All performances will begin at 8 p.m. Director is Martin Lepisto of the college drama faculty.

Tickets are $1.50 for general admission and $1 for students.

The Bells of Haworth

The Bells of Haworth, early pen name for Anne, Charlotte and Emily Bronte, jointly published a slim volume of verse in 1846. It sold two copies. By 1847, the Brontes had carved a place for themselves in literature that would later find them recognized as Britain's supreme romantic novelists, with such works as "Jane Eyre" and "Wutering Heights."

"The Bells of Haworth: The Brontes," written and directed by Alex S. Flett, is a fascinating saga of the Bronte family — Anne, Charlotte, Emily, Branwell and their father Patrick, an eccentric clergyman who survived all of his children.

"The bells of Haworth," an interpreters' theatre piece, will be presented Oct. 25-29 at 8 p.m. in the Arena Theatre on the San Francisco State University campus.

Tickets are $3; half price for students, senior citizens and alumni members.

For details call 585-7174, noon-4 p.m. weekdays.

One-Man Exhibit

The Foster City Museum Gallery will feature in November a one-man show of works by San Matean Jose Perdomo.

The exhibit will include in addition to his bronze and stone sculptures some of Perdomo's new relief works. He is best known for his "Best of Show" winner from the 1977 San Mateo County Fair "Death of the Last Butterfly: The Human Legacy" a piece with deep environmental meaning which earned for him the award of this one-man show in Foster City.

Paintings on Exhibit

Former Daly City resident Marianna Hamilton is exhibiting 35 large watercolors at Periwinkle Gallery, 1227 Danmann, Pedro Point, Pacifica, through Nov. 13.

Ms. Hamilton received her BA from UCSB, B.F.A. from the San Francisco Art Institute and M.F.A. from the University of Arizona. She has taught watercolor, drawing, painting, basic design, art for elementary education and batik.

Until June, she was chairperson of Fine Arts Department at Mercy High School, San Francisco. She is currently assistant professor of art at the University of South Carolina, Coastal Carolina College.

Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, noon to 6, Saturday 10 to 5, Sunday 12 to 5.

Brecht Play to Open

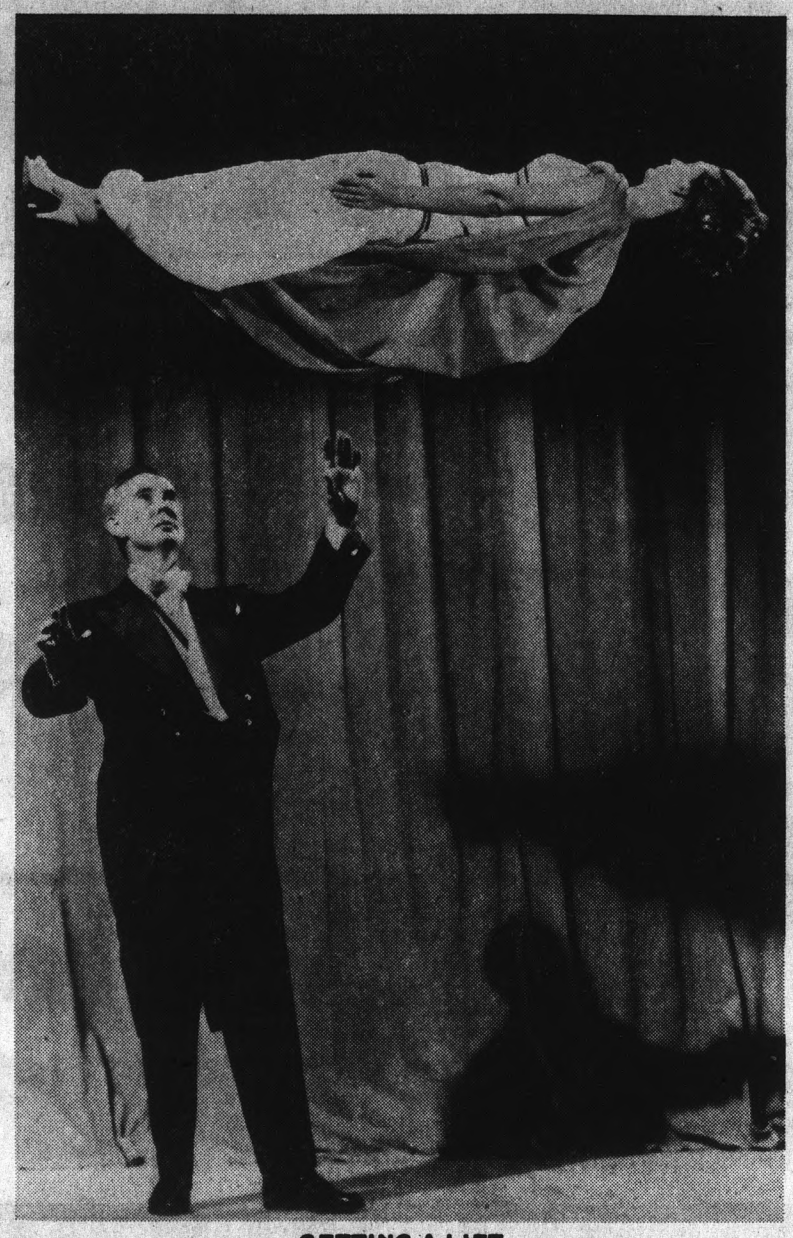
The Julian Theatre of San Francisco will present Bertolt Brecht's "In the Jungle of Cities," opening Oct. 27.

Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through Nov. 27.

The Julian is located in the Potrero Hill Neighborhood House at 953 De Haro St., San Francisco.

Set in Chicago in 1912, "In the Jungle of Cities" takes a hard and humorous look at passion and power as two men struggle for control over a lumber business, a family, and one another. The play raises many of the social and economic contradictions inherent in modern urban society.

Admission is $3 Thursdays and Sundays, $3.50 Fridays and Saturdays, $2.50 to seniors, students and unemployed persons. Lower rates are available to groups of 10 or more.



GETTING A LIFT

Lee Grabel will bring his spectacular magic show to Skyline College in San Bruno Oct. 26. The show, which begins at 7 p.m., will benefit both the Daly City Skylions Club and the San Francisco Lions Club. Among Grabel's illusions is the amazing floating piano, the disappearing horse and shooting a girl from an atomic canon. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

GIRL SCOUTING

CANDLELIGHT and flag ceremonies were featured at the recent investiture and rededication meeting of Junior troop 1535 at Broadmoor Community Center.

Girls invested include Jackie Devila, Antide Capuana, and Vicki Sullivan. Rededicated Scouts include Regina Ramos, Jenni Sullivan, Debbie Hughes, Heather Burgett, Natalie Valdez, Yvette Scott, Allison Leong and Loren Kelley.

Parents and family were invited and girls served homemade baked goods. Skits featured backdrops which the girls had also made. Leader is Mrs. Trish Sullivan.

JURNIOR JAMBOREE is set for this weekend October 22 and 23 according to Daley City Camping Coordinator (who should be contacted for further information) Mrs. Carole Ann Scott.

SUNDAY October 23 is Girl Scout Day at Magic Mountain Amusement Park.

BROWNIE Scouts are urged to contact Daly City Special Events Coordinator Mrs. Carman Fry regarding next month's Brnownie Hike.

Red Cross Student Workshop

Student leaders from all elementary schools in San Mateo County have been invited to participate in a Red Cross Youth Service Programs Elementary Day Workshop.

The workshop will be in the San Bruno and South San Francisco area Oct. 20 from 9 a.m. to noon, and in the Burlingame, Millbrae, Pacifica areas on Oct. 29 from 9 to noon.

These workshops, according to Red Cross spokesmen, will teach fifth and sixth grade students about community-oriented service activities which can be done in the classroom.

For details, call 343-4561.

SELECTED

Air Force Reserve Airman Jesus C. Panoringan, son of Martin C. Panoringan, 56 John Glenn Circle, Daly City, has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., in the Air Force aircraft equipment maintenance field.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

AT OPERALUNCH

Charles Stone of Daly City and Rita Russ of San Mateo will combine their talents Nov. 4 for the Burlingame Civic Arts Council, presented by Evelyn Leiske, in a series of Operalunches at the Burlingame Library at noon. Stone, tenor soloist for the Oakland Symphony and leading tenor for the Bocci Ball Opera Club in San Francisco for 12 years, is an accomplished pianist as well.

Auto History

The history of the automobile can be traced to the time of Leonardo da Vinci or even to the time of the discovery of the wheel.

Historians set 1769 as the year of the first self-propelled land vehicle, a cumbersome steam artillery tractor built by French Army Captain Nicolas Cugnot.

Community Digest

'Effectiveness' Is Topic

League of Women Voters in the area will study the process of "effectiveness' at meetings the week of Oct. 24-28 in members' homes.

For locations of day and evening meetings, call Susan Stoehr at 347-4630. Prospective members also can call her for details.

Traffic Deaths Decline

Traffic fatalities in California totalled 452 during September, a decline of 20 from August, Commissioner Craig of the Highway Patrol repoted.

The September death toll was an increase of 103 over the same month last year.

Craig said for the first nine months of this year there has been a total of 3,522 traffic fatalities, compared to 3,224 for the same period of 1976.

An increase in the vehicle mileage being driven on California's highways has resulted in a higher exposure to the possibility of accidents, the Commissioner said, and added that "lowered compliance with the 55 MPH speed limit has also resulted in more accidents."

Supervisor to Speak

The San Mateo Chapter of the National Association of Accountants will hear Fred Lyon, San Mateo County supervisor, discuss "Local Revenue Diversification."

The meeting will be Oct. 26 at the Royal Coach Motor Hotel in San Mateo. Cocktails are at 6, dinner at 6:45 and the meeting commences at 7:30.

Consul General at Meet

Israel's newly appointed consul general in San Francisco will be the featured speaker at the Deborah Hadassah's first meeting of the year Oct. 27, noon, at the Millbrae Pancake House, 1301 El Camino Real.

Dr. Modekhai Artzieli will discuss U.S. and Israeli partnerships. His wife, Aviv, will discuss problems of women in Israel.

For reservations, call Sherry Raffin, 348-1133, Goldie Mann, 342-6130, or Annette Lantos, 347-6297.

Open House a Success

The open house for San Francisco Bay Area members of B'nai B'rith Women turned out to be a huge success, spokeswomen said, with a constant flow of women visiting the new B'nai B'rith Women regional office, located in Daly City.

"The response to the open house, sponsored by the Central California Council of B'nai B'rith Women, shows the deep appreciation felt on the part of local chapters to have the regional headquarters in the San Francisco Bay Area which serves the membership in central and northern California, Oregon, Washington, Utah, Montana, Idaho, and British Columbia," according to Beverlee Bartoli, chairman of the all-day affair.

Following the dedication of the office with a mezuzah ceremony, attended by civic officials and Jewish leaders, the local members expressed their enthusiasm for the vital work of BBW.

The office was decorated with banners and posters showing the major program areas of BBW. The posters depict adult Jewish education, community service, BBW Children's Home in Israel, and Dolls for Democracy among others.

The buffet reception was coordinated by Esther Kaplan.

Home Baking Course

Marge Bencivenga, the author of Owiswood Production Cookbook, will give a course in home baking on four consecutive Tuesdays Oct. 25, Nov. 1, Nov. 8, and Nov. 15, from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the "A" wing of St. Andrew's Catholic Church on Sullivan and Southgate.

Savory appetizers, special holiday breads and Christmas cookies will be included in course, which is part of St. Andrew's Fall Education program.

Fee for the course is $5. A single lesson will cost $1.50.

Cubs Seek Members

Registrations still are open for boys 8-11 years old in Broadmoor Village Cub Scout Pack 259. The pack's next meeting is Oct. 21.

The Oct. 21 session will be in the multi-use room at Garden Village School. Activities will include an apple dunking, a drawing and refreshments.

Scouts also will be participating in the Broadmoor Village annual parade Oct. 22.

For details, call 755-1656.

Horse Show In D.C.

A record 2,700 entries will compete for $150,000 in horse show prize and premium money at the 33rd annual Grand National Rodeo Horse Show and Livestock Exposition, Oct. 28-Nov. 6 at the Daly City Cow Palace, according to Horse Show Manager Allen Ross.

The Grand National, with its unique three-shows-in-one design, combines the largest horse show west of the Mississippi with championship rodeo action and an education livestock exposition.

Three defending horse show champions in $10,000 events will return this year. They are DiAnn Lundy (Jumper Sweepstakes), Linda Hough (Hunter Grand Prix Classic), and Bobby Ingersol (Stock Horse Classic). An additional $10,000 class is scheduled this year — the Golden State Amateur-Owner Hunter Grand Prix Classic, making the Grand National one of the most prestigious horse shows in the nation.

COMMENDED

Assistant Chief of Police Richard Sims commends Daly City Police Officer George W. Quinn for his efforts in connection with a jewelry store burglary. "You initially covered the possible escape routes of the suspect," Sims said, "and upon arrival of sufficient units the suspect was taken into custody and all of the intended stolen property remained intact." The incident occurred on Sept. 22.

SECOND AWARD

Captain Lionel W. Simmons, whose mother is Mrs. Geraldine Crumpler, 130 Crestwood Drive, Daly City, has received his second award of the Meritorious Service Medal at Randolph AFB, Tex.

Simmons was cited for outstanding duty performance as secretary custodian of the officers' open mess.

SELECTED

Air Force Reserve Airman Don L. Peyrucain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Peyrucian, 908 Higate Drive, Daly City, has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., in the Air Force aircraft equipment maintenance field.

SERRAMONTE'S yearbook is on sale for $10 until Oct. 28, when the price will be raised to $12. You can pay $5 now and $5 in March. For $12 you can pay $7 now and $5 in March. You can get your name engraved for $1 extra.

On Oct. 11, the Parent-Teacher-Student Association held their first meeting. Under president Ron Darling, the P.T.S.A. discussed goals for this year.

Goals are: assistance to the school administration, including aid to the school and/or students where possible, assistance in school carnival, meet with department heads to see how they can be of help to them;

Organize a corps of volunteers for specific duties who can assist at a specific time, develop a public relations system for contacting parents and other citizens for meetings, support and provide factual assistance when and where needed, develop a group of parents and other citizens who are in career field jobs and would work with students as career counselors, provide a channel by which parents or citizens could advise administrators and teachers on course and program needs, and provide a forum for the discussion for academic or program change.

The P.T.S.A. will meet on the second Wednesday of November and December. All interested parents, teachers and students are urged to attend these meetings.

Catholic Women Off to Track

The women of the Westlake Catholic Women are enjoying a day at the track today, as the association sponsors its annual Day of Racing at Bay Meadows.

Mrs. Dario Baciocco has been chairing the committee, making the arrangements for this fund-raising event. Mrs. Bruno Columbini has been handling the calls for reservations.

Guests are treated to luncheon in the Turf Club, given a complimentary program and admission to the track.

PLANS FOR the 50th anniversary party commemorating the opening of San Francisco's Balboa High School will be discussed tomorrow evening, when the executive committee of the Balboa Alumni Association meets at the school.

The session is open to all graduates of the school. Anyone wishing to attend and make suggestions or offer assistance is invited to contact Vickie Hackett, secretary or the president, Mrs. Emily Powell Sumrall. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

THE MARY'S HELP Hospital Guild will meet tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. in the general meeting room at St. Andrew's Community Center, Sullivan at Southgate.

Luncheon will be served as usual, despite the change in the meeting place.

Louanne Heath

The guild's board and the tray favor committee will meet as usual, at 10:30 a.m. at the hospital.

Final preparations for the luau dinner-dance will be discussed and the members will hear a talk by John Boop, director of development of Mary's Help Hospital.

Mrs. Fran Gaffigan, chairwoman of the annual boutique "goodie" booth, will be circulating the sign-up sheet for members to volunteer to cook their favorite, cake, cookies, jam, jelly or special treat, for sale.

MEMBERS OF the San Francisco Alumnae chapter of Alpha Iota sorority will hold their annual Founder's Daly Reunion Tea in the home of a San Francisco member. Members and prospective members are invited to make reservations by calling Mrs. Janice McCraney on the Peninsula or Mrs. Barbara Wolowic in San Francisco.

MARGE BENCIVENGA, who authored the Owlswood Productions cookbook on breads, will teach a course in festive holiday cooking Oct. 25, Nov. 8 and Nov. 15 as a part of the continuing program of adult education, sponsored by the St. Andrew's Catholic Community.

Mrs. Jeanne Lamsam of St. Andrew's reports that a fee of $5 will be charged for the course or $1.50 for single class.

Mrs. Bencivenga's classes will deal with "Gifts from the Kitchen," Hors d'oevres, holiday breads and special Christmas cookies.

For details contact the St. Andrew's Catholic church education office, Southgate at Sullivan in Daly City.

TICKETS ARE on sale for the Holy Angels Women's Guild annual dinner-dance, which will be held in the Verdi Club in San Francisco Oct. 29.

A roast beef dinner with wine will be served and dancing to the music of Pete Damonte will follow. For details and reservations, call Mrs. Audrey Zanobini or Mrs. Maryann Torres. Requests for tickets may be mailed to either care of the Holy Angels School.

TICKETS ARE available for the benefit performance of "All The Kings Men" by the San Francisco Boys Chorus in the auditorium of Riordan High School Nov. 6.

Proceeds are pledged to Friends Outside. Checks for reservations may be sent to Friends Outside, 136 Church St., San Francisco. Seats are $12.50, $5, and $3 for adults and $2.50 and $1.50 for children.

THERE WILL be a birthday party for members of the John Daly Senior Citizens Club with birthdays in October.

Mrs. Servart Ojakian of the Park and Recreation Department-sponsored group, reports that plans for the pre-holiday bazaar, Oct. 22, will be reviewed.

Russian Theatre Is Topic

A view of the Russian theatre will be given when author Mike Davidow reviews his current book, "People's Theatre from Box Office to Stage in Russia," for The Friends of the Daly City Library and guests Oct. 27, 10 a.m., in the community room, Westlake Library.

Mrs. Emmett Tierney, president, invites the public to attend the free review.

According to Book Review Chairman Eileen Winter, Davidow will have on hand copies of his book, which is illustrated by 50 theatrical scenes and which will be available for autographing.

The author, who was born in Russia, was brought to this country at the age of four and received his education in New York. He has been with "Daily World" as play reviewer and dramatic critic and as a correspondent at various times. He now lives in San Francisco with his wife.

He has previously written a play, "A Closet at Battlefield," which was given a dramatic reading by ACT in 1975. John Randolph of stage and screen and Edward Hastings, executive director of ACT, highly recommend "People's Theatre."

Members of The Friends' hospitality committee, under chairmanship of Eileen Kenny, will host a coffee hour preceding the review.

Following the event, Davidow will be honored at a no-host luncheon at Bianchini's Restaurant, 35 Skyline Plaza. Reservations will be accepted at the review.

Bike Safety Talk to Cubs

Cub Pack 248 of Thomas Edison School in Daly City welcomed Officer Neil Hammerman of Daly City Police Department to its Oct. 12 meeting in the school's multi-use room.

Hammerman presented a film and discussion on bicycle safety.

Another highlight of the meeting was the Bobcat ceremony for 21 new members.

Cubmaster Austin Holian presented a one-year pin to Kevin Cyr of Den 4 and Assistant Cubmaster John Schultz presented the Athlete Award to Webelos Gilbert Buvelot, Paul Mazzoni, Scott McDonald Roger Niebolt, Chris Ridgeley, Rodil San Mateo, Mark Schemerhorn, and David Schultz.

Reduce the High Cost of Dying

The Neptune Society is the alternative to the more costly, involved mortuary-funeral-cemetery system. After 100 years, it is the answer to America's high cost of dying. The Neptune Society provides a simple, dignified cremation service with scattering on land or sea. There is no need for embalming, cosmetology, casket or graves. Most funerals with casket, grave and other related items will cost $2000 to $5000. The simple Neptune way is approx. $320 plus modest area transportation fees. The U.S. Government pays $255 cash toward death expenses. The thinking person will register today and become a card carrying member.

'Adventures' of the Palate

Nancy Stancill

Living in the Bay Area is an adventure.

One of may favorite pastimes is exploring the adventures of the palate.

In other words, there's a lot of good eatin' here and I aim to try it all.

Whenever I make such rash statements, my husband glances at me pointedly to remind me that I've gained five pounds during my first year here.

He's the type who likes "good home cookin,' " with the emphasis on fried chicken, country ham and hot biscuits. The more grits, the merrier.

If you grow up in the South, you eat Southern or not at all, usually.

Southern is the only form of ethnic dining that's available, except in the large cities.

So while my idea of eating out in the Bay Area is dining at a Mexican, Chinese, or Italian eatery, or possibly something more exotic, he's perfectly happy to visit the Colonel.

As a result, I haven't tried the more uncommon cuisines available around San Francisco.

Unfamiliarity with ethnic cuisines has led to some ludicrous situations since I've lived here.

Shortly after we moved here, my mother, father, two sisters and brother came out to pay us a visit.

We visited Chinatown and my mother suggested that we have lunch at one of the restaurants on Grant Avenue.

"I want some chow mein," she said emphatically.

In Suffolk, Va., (population 12,000 before it merged with the second largest county in the country to create a rural boom city of 45,000) chow mein is about the only Chinese dish with which the bulk of the population has familiarity. At that, it's usually from the can.

So the seven of us trooped into an attractive second-story restaurant on Grant Avenue.

We seated ourselves and proceeded to take in the atmosphere.

We were the only non-Chinese people in the place and apparently the only ones who spoke English.

The family gazed in perplexity as mammoth carts were rolled at top speed around the large dining area. When a waitress came to us, she would lift some lids, speak some fast Chinese and move on.

Nothing looked like chow mein to my mother and we kept waiting to order. We got hungrier and hungrier. The carts moved by with dizzying speed.

Finally a young Chinese woman noticed our bewilderment and came up to explain in English that the carts contained a repast known as Dim Sum or Chinese Tea, various appetizers for a midday snack.

My mother's face contorted in disappointment.

"I want chow mein," she reiterated firmly.

So the chef was moved to prepare chow mein (about $25 of it, as it turned out) and it arrived, bowl upon bowl of the steaming concoction.

We never could finish it, but my family was happy. They had eaten chow mein in Chinatown.

Screen Movies, Planners Demand

South San Francisco officials and a group of frustrated residents were hoping last week to settle once and for all lingering problems concerning a four-screen drive-in theater.

The Planning Commission last week slapped eight more conditions on a 1975 use permit for Syufy Enterprises, operators of the Spruce Drive-In Theaters.

Commissioners gave owners 30 days to meet the conditions or risk losing the use permit. An additional 30-day trial period to determine if improvements solve the problems was attached, City Planner William Constanzo said.

Syufy is the second largest theater chain in the state, according to South San Francisco officials.

Residents whose Railroad Avenue homes overlook the screens have complained for five years that speakers are left blasting all night, lights shine in their windows and that people park in driveways and in front of homes all night to watch the screens for free.

In recent weeks, the city council has attempted to resolve the situation. At a meeting last week, at one councilman indicated he was ready to revoke the drive-in theater's use permit.

The first step in revocation proceedings is a hearing at the Planning Commission level. Constanzo told commissioners they could revoke the permit based on the finding that it's a public nuisance or attach stringent conditions to the permit

"I think we've solved it," Constanxo said. "I think the commission is going to look at it regularly."

The commission is requiring that the theater close by 2 a.m. every evening and that patrons be advised of the new hours. Residents of the area said the theater has operated as late as 4 a.m.

Security guards must be assigned to each theater during regular business hours and at least one guard must be assigned to the Railroad Avenue residential section.

In the future, films shown on screens facing the north, east and southeast and visible from the surrounding roads will show only movies rated "G" and "PG". There had been complaints that soft-core films were being shown on the open screens, visible from the homes.

Other conditions are that:

- The speaker system will be replaced with one that clips to the auto radio system or shuts off automatically when patrons leave.
- A wooden skirting be installed on the bottom of the screen at the north property line.
- The theater, railroad tracks and Railroad Avenue will be cleared of all debris and trash generated from the theater.

The Flag of the United States flies every day honoring those who served our country in time of need and now rest in peace in our beautiful VETERANS SECTION Available for VETERANS and SPOUSE of all faiths

Some Presidential Cuisine

Samuel Chandler

"We may live without books — What is knowledge but grieving?

We may live without hope, — What is hope but deceiving?

We may live without love, — What is passion but pining?

But where is the man that can live without dining?"

—Owen Meredith

Where the Kennedys dined on French cuisine and the Johnsons ate chile Texas style, the Jimmy Carters sit down to peanut vegetable loaf and eggplant, southern frie

Every presidential family takes its favorite recipes to the White House — Even the McKinleys, whose favorite food was fried eggs, and Andrew Jackson, who ate wild partridge with the buckshot baked inside.

The Carters like fresh vegetables: butternut squash, next to eggplant, and broiled tomatoes with greens, and lettuce salad with poppy seed dressing, and stuffed sweet potatoes with peanut butter.

RECIPES FOR THE Carter family's favorite dishes may be found in a volume by Ceil Dyer entitled The Carter Family Favorites (Delacorte, $8.95).

Here. we learn that the President himself enjoys a good mal, but is not a gourmet.

"I'm not normally aware of the exact degree of excellence or lack of the same of what I EAT," HE SAYS, "I eat lunch at the hospital cafeteria or grab a sandwich on the run, and I eat whatever my wife prepares. It's all fine with me, but whether it's very good or not so good I simply am not aware."

Meanwhile, Dyer's book is a treasure house of Southern recipes. There are instructions on how to prepare saddle of veal with truffle sauce or New Year's Day black-eyed pea soup, or Plains baked beans. And, of course, cream of peanut soup, a specialty in Plains, Ga., although everyone seems to have a different version.

The Carter Family Favorites Cookbook is illustrative of a new breed of cookbooks that have been coming off the presses of the countrh.

One of these is Hostess Without Help (Westover Publishing Co.) by Helen Worth, the woman who taught Betty Furness, Bess Myerson and Betsy Palmer.

THE MOST important sections are the first and the last, wherein Ms. Worth demonstrates that common sense and methodical procedure are the chief qualities of a good hostess. Each of these sections are so packed with suggestions, that most busy women — even a clumsy man — can know the satisfaction of a meal that is a piece de resistance.

Such a meal may be steak sticks with devil dunk or chicken in cling sauce — which tastes as good cold as hot, or rib ticklers (spareribs) in bread crumbs and baked to a peak. Hilda's cake is a pastry from an Austrian pastry chef of yore. Summer in winter salad using frozen vegetables and tomatoes is a year round favorite.

The California Heritage Cookbook (Doubleday, $9.95) from the Junior League of Pasadena illustrates that in our own state a delightful cuisine has developed.

THERE ARE recipes from Spain, Mexico, Italy, China, France and Germany that have become "naturalized Californians."oamong the dishes are stuffed chateaubriad with madeira sauce merrill, chilled fillet of beef with sour cream dressing, beef stew with dill and artichokes and oriental beef with vegetables.

Also represented are California-style salads such as mushrooms and scallop salad and Thousand Island mold with fresh seafood. In the section from the Redwood Empire, recipes may be found for such delightful food as Tahoe brunch and blender crepes, steamed rice Chinatown style and sour cream enchiladas.

The California Heritage Cookbook, Hostess Without Help and The Carter Family Favorites are cookbooks that, if consulted and if the recipe's followed, will make diners shout with a character from a Gilbert and Sullivan production:

Now to the banquet we press;
Now for the eggs and ham;
Now for the mustard and cress,
Now for the strawberry jam!
Now for the tea of our host
Now for the rollicking bun
Now for the muffin and toast!

Oyster Point Contract

An agreement that will shift most of the financial reponsibility for South San Francisco's Oyster Point Marina expansion to the San Mateo County Harbor District was approved by the policy board last Wednesday.

The controversial marina project now is at a crucial stage in which both the city and the county must decide what direction the long-delayed project will head.

The marina board is expected to consider the proposed agreement — which took five policy board meetings to hammer out — at its next full meeting.

The South San Francisco City Council is left with several choices which are being closely eyed by a taxpayers group critical of the $8.4 million marina expansion project.

The council, according to City Manager Walter Birkelo, can call a special election concerning the marina proposal based on the United Taxpayer Association's referendum petitions, call an "advisory vote" of its own on the regular march ballot, or adopt the joint powers agreement.

If the agreement with the harbor district is approved, it still is possible for the two parties to investigate the possibility of turning the operation over to a private developer, according to city officials.

The policy board (two harbor commissioners and three councilmen) unanimously adopted the proposed agreement.

The agreement is an attempt to shift as much of the financial burden of the project as possible onto the shoulders of the county agency.

In the final draft, the harbor district immediately will assume control over marina operations on the effective date of the agreement, Nov. 11.

From then on, the district will be responsible for management, maintenance and operation of the existing and the proposed Oyster Point Marina development.

After one year, all marina employees will become employees of the district by mutual consent.

COMPLETED TRAINING

Navy Airman Recruit Alberto J. Amaya, son of Margarita A. Somorriba, 46 Eastwood Ave., Daly City, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

During the eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

D.C. Woman Heads Business Association

Gloria Chamberlin of Golden West Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association has turned the gavel over to Mrs. George Chernock, Daly City, as president.

Assisting Mrs. Chernock will be board members Audrey Hicks, vice president; Mary Michler, recording secretary; Mimi Ellis, corresponding secretary; and Helen Murphy, treasurer.

Mrs. Chernock was born and educated in New York City, has lived in the Bay Area for the past 30 years. She and her husband, parents of two boys and two girls, reside in Daly City.

Mrs. Chernock's education has been in the field of nursing and she is presently director of nurses at Mission Convalescent Center in San Francisco.

A former member of San Mateo Charter Chapter of ABWA, she is a charter member of Golden West Charter Chapter and served as the first president when the chapter was chartered in 1972. In the interim she has served in many capacities, most recently as membership chairwoman.

Committee chairwomen for 1977/78 are Lucille Spain, hospitality; Gloria Chamberlin, banquet; Irene Mann, bulletin and Christmas party; Queenie Williamson, education and courtesy; Wilma Stisser, membership and March enrollment; Donna Warner, programs; Terry Magaran, public relations; Gloria Kruse, scrapbook; Lottie Brown, ways and means; Mary Campbell, contact; Virginia Woodard, photography.

At the September enrollment event, the following new members Sandra Cox and Marjorie Lauderdale were installed.

The next dinner meeting is at Martinelli's, Millbrae, on Oct. 19, beginning at 6:30. Guest speaker will be Lorrayne Wrigley, owner of Flower Art.

Help Wanted

The following agencies have requested volunteer assistance from the Volunteer Bureau/Voluntary Action Center of San Mateo County, with offices in Burlingame, Daly City and Redwood City.

AMERICAN RED CROSS — Volunteers are urgently needed to assist in a children's immunization program against all childhood diseases at various locations throughout Northern San Mateo County the afternoon of Oct. 19, 26 and 27. This is for non-medical assistance. The South San Francisco office also needs general office assistance and someone interested in coordinating voluniteers.

SAN MATEO COUNTY SOCIAL SERVICES — A volunteer tutor is needed for two high school students to review basic algebra and geometry. This will be short term and the time is flexible.

AID TO VICTIMS AND WITNESSES — Volunteers are needed to assist victims and witnesses of violent crimes. Volunteers may participate in this program in many ways including witnesses guides at the courthouse and assisting victims. Complete training and direction is provided and this can be a valuable learning experience while helping others.

PARENTAL STRESS SERVICE — A training session for new volunteers to staff the 24-hour crisis line began Oct. 18 in the evening. Volunteer telephone counselors help people cope with the difficult tasks of parenting. An interview is required prior to the training.

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES — Someone skilled in sign language is needed as an interpreter for a few hours per week. Assistance is needed the end of October, during the day, and any assistance you could offer would be greatly appreciated.

For details, call 992-0957 or 342-0801.

NELL NORTON

Good morning, good cooks.

We are all interested in recipes that are fast, flavorful, nutritious and economical, and this recipe for a skillet supper dish fills those requirements.

Its components are wholesome natural foods — vacuum packed wheat germ, fresh spinach, carrots, nuts and eggs. The seasonings are deliberately simple to let the great fresh flavors of the foods come through.

Simply saute the whole works together. It's an appetite-satisfying dish and gives you everything you need nutritionally. Some kind of bread is really all you might add to complete the menu. What could be simpler or more appealing for a quick meal.

It's not surprising that wheat germ is so compatible with fresh vegetables and other wholesome natural foods. That's because wheat germ itself is a strictly natural food product. It is, in fact, the most vital part of the wheat kernel . . . the part which germinates if the kernel is planted. This "heart of the wheat" is processed into tiny golden flakes to stabilize its valuable nutrients.

There are no chemicals or preservatives added. Its goodness is preserved by packing in vacuum sealed jars. That's the whoosh of air you hear when the jar is opened. This genuine natural all-purpose food is a great nutrifier on its own as a breakfast cereal or as a versatile cooking ingredient.

WHEAT GERM SPINACH SAUTE

- 1 pound fresh spinach
- 1 cup vacuum packed wheat germ, regular
- 1 large carrot, shredded
- 3 eggs, beaten
- ¼ cup coarsely chopped almonds or pine nuts
- ½ to 1 teaspoon oregano leaves, crumbled
- ¼ to ½ teaspoon thyme leaves, crumbled
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ½ cup butter

Wash and drain the pound spinach. Discard coarse stems. Chop spinach coarsely. Mix with the cup wheat germ, grated carrot, three beaten eggs, fourth cup chopped nuts, half teaspoon oregano, fourth teaspoon thyme, half teaspoon salt and fourth teaspoon pepper.

Melt the half cup butter in large skillet. Add the wheat germ mixture. Saute 2 minutes over high heat, stirring frequently. Makes 4 servings.

NOTE: For one serving, use ¼ pound spinach, ¼ cup wheat germ, ¼ cup shredded carrot, one tablespoon almonds, ¼ teaspoon oregano, ⅛ teaspoon thyme, ⅛ teaspoon salt, few dashes pepper and 2 tablespoons butter. Prepare as directed above.

Oriental Paintings

Ellen Frank Chan will discuss Oriental painting at the Nov. 1 meeting of the San Bruno Art Association.

The association's meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the San Bruno Recreation Department Building, San Bruno Park.

Starving Artists' Sale

Art to go with any kind of decor or color scheme will be on display Oct. 23 when the Starving Artists' group exhibits more than 5,000 original oil paintings from noon to 5 p.m. in the Home Arts Building at the San Mateo County Fairgrounds, 2495 S. Delaware St., San Mateo.

Admission is free.

Fined Himself

In Beulah, Michigan, a justice of the peace was involved in a traffic accident and received a traffic citation in connection with the accident.

Since he was the only justice of the peace in that county, he had to judge his own case. As a result, he appeared in his own court, pleaded guilty to himself, and fined himself $20.

Record Rodeo Entries

A record 2,700 entries will compete for $150,000 in horse show prize and premium money at the 33rd annual Grand National Rodeo, Horse Show and Livestock Exposition, scheduled Oct. 28-Nov. 6 at the San Francisco Cow Palace, according to Horse Show Manager Allen Ross.

The Grand National, with its unique three-shows-in-one design, combines the largest horse show west of the Mississippi with championship rodeo action and an educational livestock exposition.

Three defending horse show champions in $10,000 events will return this year. They are DiAnn Lundy (Jumper Sweepstakes), Linda Hough (Hunter Grand Prix Classic) and Bobby Ingersol (Stock Horse Classic). An additional $10,000 class is scheduled this year — the Golden State Amateur-Owner Hunter Grand Prix Classic, making the Grand National one of the most prestigious horse shows in the nation.

A record 199 classes will be presented, including Arabian, Appaloosa, Quarter Horse divisions, and many others.

Admission to the arena shows (8 p.m. weeknights, 2 and 8 p.m. Saturdays, and 2 and 7 p.m. Sundays) range from $3 to $7, with half price matinees for juniors (under 16) and senior citizens Oct. 30 and Nov. 5.

Tickets are available at the Cow Palace Box Office (334-4852), at Ticketron, BASS, and Macy's outlets, San Francisco Downtown Center Box Office (775-2021), and all Bay Area ticket agencies. To charge tickets by phone on any major credit card, call 824-2743.

SF Giants Didn't Fare Poorly After All

Now that you've had time to cool off, I think you'll have to admit that the Giants didn't do that poorly, after all.

Of course, such judgments must be made in their proper context. True, the Giants were a fourth place team, were contended with as baseball's worst defensive team only by Oakland, and were among the lower echelons in all offensive categories in the National League.

But they had their plusses: Willie McCovey, Gary Lavelle, Bob Knepper, Ed Halicki, the best pinch-hitting in baseball, a team earned run average that was better than average in a season when all team ERA's (except the Dodgers') were bloated because of the livelier ball.

AND IN THE latter phase of the game is where the real Giants' hopes rest, for when all is boiled down, and the surprises (McCovey, Knepper, Marc Hill, Terry Whitfield, Derrel Thomas) are balanced off against the disappointments (Bill Madlock, Darrell Evans, Jim Barr, Jack Clark, Randy Moffitt), what the Giants' season really amounted to was the virtual season-long loss of half their original starting rotation in the persons of John Montefusco and Lynn McGlothen.

Based on their previous records (and on just their average rather than best seasons), it would have been almost conservative to figure on that duo for a combined record of something like 30-25. Instead, they were 9-21. Any way you cut it, that comes out to roughly a 20 game difference in what possibly should have been and in what wasn't, and there are few teams in baseball which could survive with a respectable season having sustained such unexpected and improbable losses.

For the sake of playing math games, assume that the Giants, who finished 12 games off the .500 pace, had had that 20 game difference. They would have finished eight games over .500, which would have put them in third place, 13 games away from the Dodgers but just three away from Cincinnati, which just last year was thought to be a dynasty.

WITH ALL OF the adversity, the Giants were, in fact, until late in the season a threat to go into third place, anyway, and for a few brief, gleaming moments as late as August had a good outside chance of slipping into second place.

All this from a team which most experts predicted was a fifth place team . . . some even went so far as to say that the Giants would never get out of the NL West cellar this year.

Like his methods or not, Joe Altobelli did a good job, and don't you forget it.

SUDDEN THOUGHT: I can rarely brag about having called a shot, so just a self-gratifying reminder that when the Cubs were at their peak seemingly running away with the NL East, this here column said that they were a fourth place club and would prove it before the season was over — which they did.

SO AS YOU won't be in suspense as to who won that North Beach Old Timers vs. San Francisco Old Timers softball game in commemoration of Columbus Day, it was the S.F. golden oldies for the third straight year, by a score of 13-7. Winning pitcher was Joe Butto, the loser Dino Restelli. Al Fachini, Tony Patch, Jr. and Lloyd

Le Pacini

Dickey starred in various phases of the game, primarily in most often being able to take the field without collapsing.

IF YOU LIKE odd-ball football statistics, consider that, until this season, 49er fullback Wilbur Jackson, who has gained a lot of yardage, had in three seasons of regular NFL play rushed for only one touchdown!

More stats. Jim Plunkett, it is said, had a disappointing, even a bad year last season. Yet, look at his passing stats last year as compared to his career averages in each major passing category:

1976 — Passing percentage, 51.9; avg. gain per pass attempt, 6.6; avg. gain per pass completion, 12.6; pct. of TD passes per pass attempt, .054; pct. of interceptions per attempt, .066.

Career — Passing percentage, 48.9; avg. gain per attempt, 6.6; avg. gain per completion, 13.5; pct. TD passes, .043; pct. of interceptions, .059.

Comparably speaking, then, Plunkett was about at a standoff last season with what he had accomplished, on the average, throughout his career.

Conclusion? Statistics don't always tell the whole story . . . or perhaps we all expected too much of Plunkett to begin with.

MORE ODD football records: Were you aware that from 1932 through 1939 the California Bears played eight football doubleheaders at Berkeley?

On five occasions the doubleheaders led off the season, and the Cal Aggies were involved in all eight double dips, never once winning and scoring a total of only three touchdowns — one in the first game and two in the last, being shutout five consecutive times.

Cal, in fact, won every game except the very last one, which they lost to College of the Pacific, 6-0. That touchdown by COP and the three scored by the Aggies were the only scores made off Cal in that doubleheader series, which also included West Coast Navy, Nevada, and Whittier. COP, incidentally, lost three others to Cal during the series of doubleheaders.

LOCAL NOTE: That pretty young English teacher at Jefferson High School, Margaret Norris, is the cousin of football great Ollie Matson.

Like Ollie, Margaret went to Washington High in San Francisco and was an instant celebrity when she once got Ollie to make an appearance at a rally.

Although he's now teaching in Los Angeles she still sees him occasionally, and says that he's as nice and down to earth as ever — never got the fat head despite all the records and the football Hall of Fame.

ABOUT 12 years ago, when karate was really taking root in this country, I almost came under heavy criticism (some of it very nearly physical criticism) because of a series of columns on karate in which I generally, among many other charges, downgraded its effectiveness as a method of self-defense because, I wrote, "whenever one is instructed in it, the teacher invariably sets up a situation by saying, 'Now, if I put my hand there, you do this, and when I do this, you do that . . .' " I noted that in a street fight your attacker doesn't stop to ask you where you might like him to attack you, and how. I in fact caused much hostility by claiming that a good street would beat a karate expert, untrained in the street — every time.

Now out of the Los Angeles Times, an article by Robert C. Toth tells of a lady sociologist, who having studied karate for two years as part of a research project, concludes that karate is, "a poor mechanism for self-defense."

"A good street fighter," writes Toth, quoting Dr. Linda Marie Fritschner of California State University-Sacramento, "is likely to beat a black belt karate expert, because the karate expert is 'trained to kick, block and punch in certain places in karate, which are not ordinarily where a street fighter will kick, block and punch.' "

Volleyball Action Underway

Daly City's Recreation Department's Girl's Volleyball League got underway last week with plenty of action.

In the Fifth Grade Division, the O.L.M. Whites made a great come-back to defeat the O.L.M. Reds. They lost the first game 1-15, and then put it together to win the next two games 15-10, 16-14. Debbie Passini, Raquel Dahud and Christine Flores had a fine day for the Whites. Holy Angels recorded its first win with a victory over the SAL Stompers 15-13 and 15-8. The Angels were led by the fine serving of Penny Fonti and Susan Fitzgerald. SAL was led by a fine performance from Kimberly Smith. The St. Andrew Scots defeated St. Thomas More.

In the Sixth Grade Division the SAL Superstars got off to a good start as they defeated Holy Angels 7-15, 15-13 and 15-12. The serving of Carla Mejia and Francine Anibale led the way for the Stompers. Elaine Borzoni had an excellent match for the Angels. The St. Andrew Scots defeated the St. Andrew Blues in two games 15-6 and 15-12. Carrie Donnelly and Helen Newmiller showed some fine skills in the win for the Scots. The SAL Panthers came to play as they defeated the St. Thomas More Saints 15-4 and 15-0. Kathy Domingo, Cecilia Norona showed what fine servers they are and Julie Clarke played an outstanding game for SAL. Susan Thompson and Jennifer Weil played a fine game for the Saints.

The Fourth Grade Division saw the O.L.M. Olympians defeat SAL 15-11 and 15-1. Christine Loughran served 10 points in the second game to lead the way. Robin Allen was high scorer for SAL with four points.

The St. Andrew Scots put it all together to defeat Holy Angels 15-2 and 15-0. Elaine Gobert had a fine day for the Scots, with Jill Stanghellini and Heidi Schmidt giving their all for Holy Angels.

Palmer Sparks SSF Victory

SSF Back Rushes for 249 Yards

South City's Dave Palmer has arrived.

Palmer, a 6-0, 188-pound halfback for South San Francisco High's football team, has fulfilled the promise that seemed imminent a year ago.

South City's star running back tore Westmoor High's defense apart Friday as SSF defeated the host Rams 26-12 in an early-season North Peninsula League crucial.

Palmer, in a word, was devastating. He carried the ball 31 times for 249 yards and had scoring runs of 35, 31 and 14 yards.

The loss was Westmoor's first of the season after three succesive non-league wins and a 23-7 NPL victory over Jefferson. South City is now 2-0 in league play and 4-1 over-all.

In other NPL contests Half Moon Bay and Terra Nova kept their unblemished records intact. HMB struggled past visiting Jefferson 14-6 and Terra Nova pounded host El Camino 28-14 Friday night at Clifford Field. Also, Oceana topped winless visitor Serramonte 32-13.

SOUTH CITY-WESTMOOR

Last season Palmer was a lone bright spot in an otherwise dismal season for the proud Warriors. As a junior he rushed for 620 yards (5.5 per carry) and impressed rival coaches with his quickness and strength.

But Palmer was like a precious gem, still waiting to be cut and polished. Throughout the season (SSF's worst in over 20 years) Palmer often had trouble holding on to the ball. Finally, a shoulder separation in the team's eighth game, ended his year.

This season things have been different for Palmer and the Warriors. South City's fine runner is well on his way to a 1000-yard season and he has mended his fumbling ways of yesteryear. And SSF has reaped the benefits of Palmer's success.

It didn't take long for Palmer to set the tone for South City's surprisingly easy win over the Rams. After Westmoor fumbled on its first play from scrimmage, Palmer immediately rambled 35 yards for a touchdown and the Warriors led 7-0 after only 47 seconds of play.

Late in the first period South City stretched its lead to 13-0 when quarterback Karl Young connected with flanker Glenn Kramer on a 37-yard, TD strike.

Westmoor, which was thoroughly outplayed throughout most of the first half, put a score on the board in the second period. A roughing the kicker penalty and a personal foul set up Rich Rogers' 14-yard scoring catch from QB Tony Limutau as Westmoor cut its deficit to six.

The pivotal point in the contest came midway through the third period when Westmoor gambled and lost on a fourth-and-two situation from its own 36-yard line. Limutau was stacked up for no gain by the middle of the Warrior line.

Soon after Palmer blasted off right tackle and then broke four tackles on his way to a 31-yard TD run which put SSF up 19-7.

Two minutes later, after a Ram fumble, Palmer capped South City's scoring by cruising around left end on a 14-yard scoring jaunt.

Westmoor's second half TD came on a one-yard plunge by Limutau with 1:42 left in the third quarter.

TERRA NOVA-EL CAMINO

El Camino made things easy for the Tigers by committing six turnovers — three fumbles and three interceptions.

Terra Nova's offense, paced by the running and passing wizardry of Mike Diaz, efficiently transformed Camino's mistakes into points.

Diaz rushed for 76 yards on 14 carries and scored one touchdown. He also completed eight of 12 passes for 117 yards. Steve Webb, John Nava and Ed Gallagher all had short scoring runs for the Tigers.

Colt QB Mark Evans had a pair of fourth quarter touchdown passes. He hooked up with Jeff Pettigrew on a 28-yard scoring pass and then tossed a 40-yard TD bomb to John Drago.

SERRAMONTE-OCEANA

For the second week in a row Serramonte outgained its opponent. The Regents compiled 323 yards in total offense as compared to 318 for Oceana.

But for the second consecutive week Oceana also gave away the game with untimely fumbles and penalties.

Oceana quarterback Dan Lee had a field day against Serramonte's secondary. He completed nine of 16 passes for 175 yards and three TDs. Shark fullback Randy Swayne didn't do so badly either. He packed the ball 26 times for 108 yards and caught scoring passes of 14 and 44 yards.

Serramonte QB Lou Tinsley connected on 11 of 21 passes for 191 yards and no interceptions.

HALF MOON BAY-JEFFERSON

Nick Moreno helped make Half Moon Bay's homecoming game a success by rushing for 113 yards and one touchdown.

The Cougars rolled up 219 yards in offense to Jefferson's 57 and scored two touchdowns in the second half to put the game away.

Moreno ravaged the Indian defense on quick pitches and also caught two passes for 41 yards. The Cougars' Brian Knapp scored their other touchdown.

A FULL WEEK PRIVATE PARTY WANT AD RATES

Family Thrift Special

"Best Bargain in San Mateo County"

2 LINES-9 ISSUES (HOMES) -$7.00

These special "Wanted To Buy" or "For Sale" Private Party ads will appear in all Amphlett Printing Company's publications for 1 week, 6 issues of The Times, 1 issue of The Post and 2 issues of the San Bruno Publications, 9 publication times in all. This combination of publications gives you over 140,000 circulation concentrated in San Mateo County.

The rate for these special private party ads is $7.00 for a 2 line minimum ad for 9 issues. Each additional line, above the 2 line minimum, will be billed at $3.00 per line. So, a 2 line ad for 1 week in all 9 issues of Amphlett Printing Company's Publications would cost $7.00. A 3 line ad would cost $10.00, a 4 line ad $13.00, etc. These special Private Party Want Ad rates are available only for items priced below $500, or when ads contain multiple items, the total value of all advertised items may not exceed $500.

These special private party ads will appear in the appropriate classification within the Classified Section.

New Private Party Want Ad Rate About 39¢ Per Line Per Issue

The requirements for special Private Party Want Ads are:

(1) Only private party advertisers are eligible, no commercial ads accepted.

(2) The item or items advertised "For Sale" or "Wanted to Buy" must have a total value of less than $500.

(3) Each item advertised must be individually listed and individually priced. For ads containing multiple items, the number of items listed may not exceed the number of lines in the ad. i.e. A 2 line ad may contain no more than 2 items, a 3 line ad may contain up to 3 items, etc.

(4) The ad must be placed for 1 full week, 9 times, in all of Amphlett Printing Company's publications. You may cancel the ad prior to the full 9 times appearances but you will be charged the full 9 time rate, no refunds.

(5) DEADLINES: Classified advertising must be placed by 3:00 p.m., day preceding publication, Monday through Friday: 12 noon Saturday for Monday's publication, and 48 hours preceding Holidays.

Pre-race Breakfast At Bay Meadows

Open house programs will be held each Saturday morning from now through Nov. 26 at BAY MEADOWS, with the public invited free of charge to observe morning workouts and training races, view racing films and tour the barn area, with a "continental breakfast" thrown in for good measure. The programs will commence at 8 a.m. in the area in front of the clubhouse and they will conclude at approximately 10:30 a.m. Children are particularly welcome, but they should be accompanied by adults. It is an excellent opportunity for youth organizations, such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, etc., to enjoy a field trip that should prove both entertaining and educational. You've heard of "Breakfast at Tiffany's". How about "Breakfast at Bay Meadows," along with all the color and excitement of the early morning pre-race activity . . . There's a "Chef's Specialty" to suit most every pocketbook and palate at ROMANO'S ITALIAN and SEAFOOD restaurant in Rockaway Beach. Abalone Dore Supreme with Roast Potatoes and Asparagus, Sea Stew Sinaloa with Garlic Bread and Steamed Clams Bordelaise are super popular . . . Gourmet flaming steaks, prepared tableside at PHIL LEHR'S STEAKERY, on the lower level of the San Francisco Hilton Tower, Taylor Street entrance, are like an edible floor show. Order Phil's Steak Shallot flambe for an unforgettable dining treat . . . Maynard Monaghan, retired wine taster of Napa's famed Beaulieu Vineyard, complimented JIM DAY, manager of ROSEBUD'S ENGLISH PUB in San Francisco, on the fabulous new restaurant's exceptional wine cellar — and modest prices . . . As for taking reservations, SCOTTY CAMPBELL'S in Redwood City is never closed. During the hours before opening, a phone recorded message informs you of the hours of business, and will record your reservation. Celebrities galore make this prestigious dinner house their dine out mecca. Saturday night guests included lovely vocalist Nancy Wilson, who promises to return with her family, and four 49er greats . . . Appetizers, soups, salads, all varieties of fresh fish when available, a great selection of Italian specialties, and even children's plates, are all prepared to take out at VINCE'S ITALIAN and SEAFOOD restaurant in San Mateo. And if you're a stickler for good service, you'll be impressed with the professional crew here . . . Oscar, the huge fish that was a mainstay in THE CASTAWAY'S aquarium since the Coyote Point restaurant first opened, died of old age. The staff was in such a melancholy state that General Manager JOE LOHMAN made arrangements for a similar type fish to take Oscar's place. "Baby Oscar" now swims happily in the aquarium for all to see . . . The organ strains of JIMMY PAYER, who solos at NICK'S, Rockaway Beach, on Wednesday and Thursday nights and is joined by his band on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, are easy on the ears and danceable. . . BAYHILL LOUNGE owners, HARRY CURUSIS and MEL CICERO have signed THE TRI SOUNDS to another one year contract. The group, which has been entertaining at this San Bruno lounge for two years, turned down other offers in order to remain here . . . A complete family-style dinner for under $4 is now being featured Monday through Friday at YOLANDA'S. This offer, valid through the month of October, is Owner BOB McLANE'S way of rewarding you for taking the time to find his restaurant, which is located in the San Francisco Produce Market. Senior Citizens and those on a limited budget are especially welcomed . . . Denise Kilbourne, who recently starred in "Chantoozie Time," brings her superb voice and sparkling wit to Lehr's Cabaret Theater at the Greenhouse in San Francisco for a fast-paced evening of sophisitcated comedy and song on Mondays and Tuesdays . . . The 50 cent "discount coupon" in today's "Bright Lights" can be applied toward purchases of $1 or more at any of the nine restaurants located in the Garden Restaurant complex in TANFORAN PARK, San Bruno. Valid Monday through Friday after 4 p.m. through Nov. 2.

CREW FOR A DAY (George Brooke Photos)

A cruise on San Francisco Bay can be a thrilling and exhilarating experience for anyone, but particularly for the 90 children and young adults who participated in the Fifth Annual Cruise for Handicapped Kids in South San Francisco Saturday. The Oyster Point Yacht Club sponsors the two hour trip around the bay, ending with a breakfast for all the participants. A highlight of the day for the landlubbers was a close-up view of some of the big ocean liners docked around the Bay.

Trojan Soccer Team Resting

With its first Coast Conference triumph under their belts, Skyline College's soccer team has a bye this week, giving extra needed rest to the defending Coast Conference champions.

The Trojan booters evened their conference record last Friday with a 4-3 win over Gavilan College.

The triumph moved the San Brunans record to 1-1 in league action and 6-6-1 overall.

Next Tuesday, Skyline will travel to Menlo Park for a 2:30 p.m. game with Menlo College. This is the first year the Oaks have fielded a team in the Coast Conference.

Striker Petro Estakri tallied two goals to lead the way to the Trojan victory over Gavilan.

Still bothered by lingering injuries, SC coach Norm Friedeberg was forced to substitute extensively. Three key players, Estakhri (thigh injury), forward Leo Perez (ankle) and halfback Nelson Arcaya (knee) all played with injuries, but came out at different points of the game to rest their injuries.

Skyline Coach Heads District

Skyline College basketball coach Lyle Newcomer has been named a National Association of Basketball Coaches Junior College District chairman, it was announced last week.

Newcomer, in his fourth year as head coach at Skyline, will be in charge of District 8, which includes Alaska, California, Hawaii, Nevada, Oregon and Washington. Newcomer will report, along with the other national chairmen, during the NCAA Basketball finals in St. Louis in late March. At that meeting, the various district chairmen will discuss various happenings in junior college basketball.

"I'll be talking to the various coaches in these areas and will be sending out brochures and surveys and questionaires relating to junior college basketball. They'll be telling me about things the various coaches think need to be improved with JC basketball and at the meeting in St. Louis we all will relate the results that we've gathered up," Newcomer commented.

Next month, Newcomer will be in Berkeley as a featured guest lecturer at the University of California basketball clinic on November 12, from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Newcomer will speak in the morning on the "Skyline College Fastbreak." The UC Berkeley basketball team will demonstrate various basketball drills and the University of Oregon basketball coach, Dick Harter, also will lecture.

Each issue of The Post and San Bruno Publications will be considered as consecutive insertions and must be taken to qualify for consecutive insertion rate. San Bruno newspapers are published Wednesday and Friday. The Post is published Wednesday.

ACCEPTABILITY: The Times reserves the right to reject, censor and properly classify any advertisement.

THE FIRST WORD of each 8 point type ad will be spelled out. Abbreviations will be accepted on the first word in 12 point or larger type lines. However, any ad that does not begin with an alphabetical character will not be in alphabetical sequence.

DEADLINE: Classified advertising must be placed by 3:00 p.m. day preceding publication, Monday through Friday, 12 noon Saturday for Monday's publication and 48 hours preceding holidays.

CANCELLATION: Cancellation orders must be received before 3:00 p.m. on the day preceding publication for all line advertisements appearing in The Times from Tuesday through Saturday and before 12 noon Saturday for Monday's publication. Display Classified must be cancelled in writing 48 hours prior to publication date.

ERRORS: No responsibility is assumed by publisher for errors in any advertisement covered by order, nor for the omission of any advertisement in whole or in part, nor for failure to comply with the placement of advertising as ordered either as to frequency or volume. In no event shall publisher be liable for special damages or consequential damages even if it has been notified of the possibility of such damages.

Errors in published advertisements must be reported immediately; and if done, publisher will publish an appropriate correction and where publisher deems it necessary a rerun of the advertisement as corrected, if in publisher's judgment the error substantially varies the meaning of the advertisement as ordered. Such corrections will be made only as to those advertisements which are ordered for one insertion, and as to the first insertion only when ordered for more than one insertion.
